

Dear Learners,

We understand that sometimes you may encounter difficulties while using our platform or courses. In such situations, we kindly request that you refer to our FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions) section before raising a support ticket.

Our FAQ section contains solutions to some of the most common issues faced by learners, and it can save you time and effort in finding a quick resolution to your problem.

If you cannot find a solution to your problem in our FAQ section, please feel free to raise a support ticket, and our team will be happy to assist you. However, we encourage you to try finding the answer in the FAQ section first, as it may be a faster and more convenient option for you.

Thank You for your cooperation and understanding
Best regards,
